On March 9, 1965, [ ] Chief Counsel, Time-Life, Incorporated, 50th Street and 6th Avenue, New York, New York, and Gordon Parks, a former staff member of Time-Life, who is presently employed on a free-lance basis, advised of a plot of certain undisclosed members of the Nation of Islam (NOI) on the life of Gordon Parks for having written an article appearing in the March 5, 1965, issue of Life Magazine, which was unfavorable to the NOI. This article is captioned "I Was A Zombie Then-Like All Muslims I Was Hypnotized".

According to [ ] and Parks, information concerning this plot was told to them by a confidential source known to both of them who is familiar with NOI activities and who has furnished reliable information to them in the past. [ ] stated that on the day the mentioned "Life" had been distributed in the New York area, March 2, 1965, the NOI became infuriated after reading the article. Certain unidentified members had a meeting and decided that Gordon Parks would have to be killed or at least injured in a serious manner so that other Negro writers would be "kept in line". On this date, a [ ] of the NOI in New York City, telephoned certain members of the NOI in Chicago and advised them of this article.
